Professor of Social Work

The School of Social Work invites applications for three full-time tenure-track positions for its Montreal and Laval campuses at the rank of Assistant Professor with a specialization in Social Intervention.

Responsibilities

The successful candidates will be expected to teach at all three levels of the curriculum, supervise graduate students, engage in ongoing research and publication, and contribute to the academic life and reputation of the institution.

Requirements

- PhD (or dissertation near completion) in Social Work or a related discipline with a Master's or Bachelor's degree in Social Work.
- Qualified to teach undergraduate and graduate social work intervention courses and ability to incorporate individual and collective aspects of social work intervention.
- Specializations and practical experience in fields related to methodology of individual, group or collective social intervention will be considered.
- Proficiency in the French language. The Université de Montréal is a Québec university with an international reputation. French is the language of instruction. To renew its teaching faculty, the University is intensively recruiting the world's best specialists. In accordance with the institution's language policy [http://www.direction.umontreal.ca/secgen/recueil/politique_linguistique.html], the Université de Montréal provides support for newly-recruited faculty to attain proficiency in French.

Salary

The Université de Montréal offers a competitive salary and a complete range of benefits.

Starting Date

From June 1, 2012.

Deadline

The complete application, including a cover letter, curriculum vitae, copies of recent publications or research reports, a description of interests and a research program, must be received at the address below by December 9, 2011. Email submissions will not be accepted.

Confidentiality

The Université de Montréal application process allows all regular professors in the Department to have access to all documents unless the applicant explicitly states in her or his cover letter that access to the application should be limited to the selection committee. This restriction on accessibility will be lifted if the applicant is invited for an interview.

Employment Equity Program

The Université de Montréal upholds the principles of employment equity and welcomes applications from women, ethnic and visible minorities, aboriginals and people with disabilities. Applicants who belong to one of these groups are asked to complete the employment equity identification questionnaire posted at www.fas.umontreal.ca/affaires-professorales/documents/quest-acces-emploi-EN.pdf and attach it to their application.

Immigration Requirements

In compliance with Canadian immigration requirements, priority shall be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents.
