

Département de communication
Faculté des arts et des sciences

Professor in International and/or Intercultural Communication

The Département de communication is seeking applications for a full-time tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor in International and/or Intercultural Communication. Candidates situating their work in the perspectives of globalisation, postcolonial and/or subaltern studies are also welcome to apply.

➤ Responsibilities

The appointed candidate will be expected to teach at all three levels of the curriculum, supervise graduate students, engage in ongoing research and publication, and contribute to the academic life and reputation of the University.

➤ Requirements

- Ph.D. in Communication or in a related field.
- Evidence of dynamism and creativity in teaching and pedagogy.
- Candidates are expected to demonstrate how their research contributes to the intellectual debates within international and/or intercultural communication studies.
- Proficiency in the French language

Linguistic Policy: The Université de Montréal is a Québec University with an international reputation. French is the language of instruction. To renew its teaching faculty, the University is intensively recruiting the world's best specialists. In accordance with the institution's language policy [http://secretariatgeneral.umontreal.ca/fileadmin/user_upload/secretariat/doc_officiels/reglements/administration/adm10-34_politique-linguistique.pdf], the Université de Montréal provides support for newly-recruited faculty to attain proficiency in French.*

➤ Salary

The Université de Montréal offers a competitive salary and a complete range of employee benefits.

Échelle salariale

➤ Starting Date

On or after June 1st, 2017.

➤ Constitution of application

- The application must include the following documents:
 - a cover letter
 - a curriculum vitæ
 - copies of recent publications and research
 - evidence of teaching effectiveness
 - a statement of research interests
 - a statement of teaching interests
- Three letters of recommendation are also to be sent directly to the department chair by the referees.

➤ Deadline

Application and letters of recommendation must be sent to the chair of the Département de communication by November 7, 2016 at the following address:

M. Thierry Bardini, directeur
Département de communication
Faculté des arts et des sciences
Université de Montréal
C. P. 6128, succursale Centre-ville
Montréal (QC) H3C 3J7

Application and letters of recommendation can also be sent by e-mail to the following address:
thierry.bardini@umontreal.ca.

For more information about the Department, please consult its Web site at: www.com.umontreal.ca.

▪ Confidentiality

The Université de Montréal application process allows all regular professors in the Department to have access to all documents unless the applicant explicitly states in her or his cover letter that access to the application should be limited to the selection committee. This restriction on accessibility will be lifted if the applicant is invited for an interview.

▪ Equal Access Employment Program

Université de Montréal promotes diversity in its workforce and encourages members of visible and ethnic minorities as well as women, Aboriginal people, persons with disabilities and people of all sexual orientations and gender identities to apply.

▪ Immigration Requirements

We invite all qualified candidates to apply. However, in accordance with immigration requirements in Canada, please note that priority will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents.