

L'Université de Montréal et de votre carrière.

Deeply rooted in Montreal and dedicated to its international mission, Université de Montréal is one of Canada's Top 100 Employers. Like the city whose name it bears, it is effervescent and multicultural.

UdeM attracts over $500 million in research funding every year, making it one of the top three university research hubs in Canada. It also ranks among the top 100 universities worldwide and among the five best French language universities.

Through the achievements of the members of its community, UdeM participates in building today's and tomorrow's world.

Associate or Full Professor in Chemistry - Tomorrow's materials

Department of Chemistry

Faculty of Arts and Science

Job description

The Department of chemistry invites applications for a full-time faculty position at the rank of Associate or Full Professor in the area of Tomorrow's materials

This faculty position is tied to the 2022 Canada Excellence Research Chair \(CERC\) program and will only be filled by candidates who are awarded a CERC. The yearly allocation for the institution is $5M. Under this program, Chairholders will be awarded either $500,000 or $1 million per year for a period of 8 years. The level of research funding will be established in function of the demonstrated needs of the research program. The successful candidate will be called upon to collaborate on the Chair application until its submission in September 2022.

Responsibilities

The successful candidate will hold the CERC. As such, he or she will be responsible for ensuring the success of the CERC by conducting and promoting research locally and internationally. He or she will be expected to foster collaborations with researchers within the University, but also with other talents in the field, both in Canada and abroad. The CERC Chair is expected to teach at the undergraduate and graduate levels, supervise graduate students, and contribute to the activities of the institution.

Requirements

- » Be eligible to receive a CERC, which includes but is not limited to :
 - a completed PhD;
 - a minimum of 7 years of experience as a professor in a university
 - hold a professorship outside of Canada at the time of posting;
 - a research record that includes significant publications in one of the sectors of excellence at the Université de Montréal;
- » Demonstrated ability to provide high quality university teaching
- » An adequate knowledge of the French written and spoken language or a strong commitment to reach the required proficiency level, in accordance to Université de Montréal's Language Policy. An institutional learning support program is offered to all professors wishing to learn French or improve their communication skills.

How to submit your application

The application file sent to the Department Chair should contain the following documents:

- » A cover letter; application must include in the cover letter one of the following statements: "I am a citizen/ permanent resident of Canada." or "I am not a citizen or permanent resident of Canada."
- » A research statement for a CERC (approximately one page)
- » Your curriculum vitae;
- » Recent publications or research papers;
- » Three letters of recommendation are also to be sent directly to the Department Chair by the referees

Applications and letters of recommendation must be submitted by email no later than April 30th, 2022 to :

Andreea R. Schmitzer/ Chair

Department of Chemistry, Faculty of Arts and Science

Email : ar.schmitzer@umontreal.ca and direction@chimie.umontreal.ca

Website : www.chimie.umontreal.ca

Additional information about the position

Reference number	FAS 03-22/31
Application deadline	From March 30 th to April 30 th , 2022, inclusively
Salary	Université de Montréal offers competitive salaries and a full range of benefits
Starting date	No later than 12 months after the Chair is awarded

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Université de Montréal is strongly committed to fostering diversity and inclusion and has implemented an Equal Access Employment Program (EAEP). UdeM invites applications from women, Aboriginal people, visible and ethnic minorities, as well as persons with disabilities, and persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities. At any stage of the recruitment process, our selection tools can be adapted to the needs of people living with limitations who request them : they are invited to communicate in confidence with Professor Jean-Pierre Blondin, Associate Vice-Rector, Faculty Affairs, by email or phone at 514-343-6404.

In order to measure the impact of its equity, diversity and inclusion actions, UdeM is collecting data on applicants identifying themselves with one of the groups targeted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Act, namely women, Aboriginal people, visible minorities, ethnic minorities and people with limitations. To this end, we thank you for completing this self-identification questionnaire. The information you provide through this form is strictly confidential and will be shared only with those responsible for the UdeM EAEP. If you wish, you may also indicate that you belong to one of the targeted groups in your cover letter, which will be reviewed by the selection committee and the assembly of peers.

Université de Montréal further recognizes and fairly considers the legitimate impact of leaves (e.g., parental leaves, delays caused by illness or disability, COVID-19 impacts) that may contribute to career interruptions or slowdowns. Candidates are encouraged to signal any leave that may have had an effect on productivity or on their career path. This information will be carefully weighed to ensure the equitable assessment of candidates records.

Université de Montréal's application process allows all members of the Professor's Assembly to review the application files submitted. If you wish to keep your application confidential until the short list is established, please mention it in your application.

In accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, priority will be given to Canadians and permanent residents.

Université
de Montréal

The University of Montreal and of the world.