Job description

The school of Psycho-Education invites applications for the position of full-time Assistant Professor at its Montreal and Laval campuses, with established expertise in the field of intervention with vulnerable populations including but not being limited to individuals, families, groups, communities, and organizations.

Established in 1972, the School of Psychoeducation was the first to offer university training in psychoeducation in Quebec. With its 22 career professors, it plays a leading role in research and in the training of undergraduate and graduate students.

Responsibilities

The successful candidate will be expected to teach at undergraduate and graduate levels, supervise graduate students, pursue a solid research program, engage in publication and other outreach activities, and contribute to other activities of the institution.

Requirements

» Ph.D. in Psychoeducation or in a relevant discipline;
» Demonstrated skills in providing high quality university teaching;
» Research experience and an excellent record of publications in a relevant field;
» Have an adequate knowledge of the French language or be determined to become a fluent speaker and writer through the French language learning support program offered to its professors, under the Language Policy of the Université de Montréal.

Assets

» Postdoctoral training;
» Member or eligibility to the ordre des psychoéducateurs et psychoéducatrices du Québec (OPPQ).
How to submit your application

The application must be sent to the Director of the School of Psychoeducation and must include the following documents:

» A letter of motivation. In order to comply with the requirements of Government of Canada, please include in your cover letter one of the following statements: "I am a citizen/permanent resident of Canada" or "I am not a citizen/permanent resident of Canada";
» A curriculum vitae;
» Two or three examples of recent publications or research work representative of the candidate's expertise;
» A statement on teaching principles (no more than two pages);
» A statement describing a proposed research program (no more than two pages);
» Three letters of recommendation, which must be sent by referees directly to the Director of the School of Psychoeducation.

The application form and letters of recommendation must be sent by email no later than January 15, 2023, to:

Paul Gendreau, Chair

Univérsité de Montréal is strongly committed to fostering diversity and inclusion. Through its Equal Access Employment Program (EAEP), UdeM invites applications from women, Aboriginal people, visible and ethnic minorities, as well as persons with disabilities. We will—confidentially—adapt our recruitment mechanisms to the specific needs of people with disabilities who request it.

UdeM embraces a broad and inclusive definition of diversity that goes beyond applicable laws, and therefore encourages all qualified individuals to apply, regardless of their characteristics. However, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, priority will be given to Canadians and permanent residents.

In order to measure the impact of its equity, diversity and inclusion actions, UdeM is collecting data on applicants identifying themselves with one of the groups targeted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Act, namely women, Aboriginal people, visible minorities, ethnic minorities and people with limitations. To this end, we thank you for completing this self-identification questionnaire. The information you provide through this form is strictly confidential and will be shared only with those responsible for the UdeM EAEP. If you wish, you may also indicate that you belong to one of the targeted groups in your cover letter, which will be reviewed by the selection committee and the assembly of peers.

Univérsité de Montréal's application process allows all members of the Professor's Assembly to review the application files submitted. If you wish to keep your application confidential until the shortlist is established, please mention it in your application.
