Assistant Professor in Earth System Science

Department of Geography

Faculté des arts et des sciences

Job Description

The Department of Geography invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track position in the emerging field of Earth System Science. This field considers that all of the elements of the earth's environment form a complex, non-linear system and that this system is currently undergoing profound change as a result of anthropogenic activity. Accordingly, the desired research program should examine the relationship between global scale environmental and climatic systems and human activity. The mobilization of multiple methods, including field work, laboratory analysis, remote sensing, or modeling would be welcomed. This position complements existing strengths in the Department in the study of environment, from both a physical and human geography perspective.

Responsibilities

The appointed candidate will be expected to teach undergraduate and graduate courses, supervise graduate students, be active in research, publishing, and the diffusion of knowledge, and contribute to the activities of the University.

Requirements

- » Ph. D in Geography or a related discipline. Candidates completing dissertation will also be considered.
- » Recognized training in the field of Earth System Science.
- » Publications in internationally recognized journals.
- » Demonstrated ability to offer high quality university teaching.
- » An adequate knowledge of the French written and spoken language or a strong commitment to mastering the proficiency level required, in accordance to Université de Montréal's Language Policy. An institutional learning support program is offered to all professors wishing to learn French or improve their communication skills.

How to submit your application

The application file should contain the following documents:

- » Cover letter
- » Application must include in the cover letter one of the following statements: “I am a citizen / permanent resident of Canada.” or “I am not a citizen or permanent resident of Canada.”
