

L'Université
de Montréal et de votre carrière.

Université de Montréal has more than 10,000 employees and is one of Canada's Top 100 Employers.

UdeM has Canada's 2nd largest student body and ranks among the top five Canadian research universities, receiving more than half a billion dollars in research funding every year.

Through the achievements of the members of its community, UdeM participates in building today's and tomorrow's world.

Assistant Professor of Economic Crime

School of Criminology

Faculté des arts et des sciences

Job description

The School of Criminology is seeking applications for the full-time, tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant Professor in the field of Economic Crime. The School of Criminology of the Université de Montréal is the largest criminology department in the French-speaking world. The programs offered by the School, at the undergraduate and graduate levels, are internationally recognized. Many are unique in Canada and all are distinguished by a quality of teaching that includes both European and American influences.

Responsibilities

The appointed candidate will be expected to teach undergraduate and graduate courses, supervise graduate students, be active in research, publishing, contribute to the life and reputation of the University.

Requirements

- » Ph. D in criminology or a related discipline
- » An excellent record of publications in the area
- » Demonstrated ability to provide high quality university teaching
- » An adequate knowledge of the French written and spoken language or a strong commitment to mastering the proficiency level required, in accordance to Université de Montréal's Language Policy. An institutional learning support program is offered to all professors wishing to learn French or improve their communication skills.

How to submit your application

The application file should contain the following documents:

- » A cover letter
 - » Application must include in the cover letter one of the following statements: “I am a citizen / permanent resident of Canada.” or “I am not a citizen or permanent resident of Canada.”
 - » Your curriculum vitae
 - » Examples of recent publications or research papers
 - » A description of your teaching philosophy (maximum one page)
 - » A presentation of your research program (maximum two pages)
-
- » Three letters of recommendation are also to be sent directly to the head of the department by the referees.

M. Jean Proulx, directeur
École de criminologie
Faculté des arts et des sciences - Université de Montréal
Email : criminologie@umontreal.ca

Interested parties will find a great deal of information about the School on its website at <http://crim.umontreal.ca/accueil/>.

Additional information about the position

Reference number	FAS 11-20 / 14
Application deadline	Until 15 January 2021 inclusively
Salary	Université de Montréal offers competitive salaries and a full range of benefits
Starting date	On or after June 1 st , 2021

Université de Montréal is strongly committed to fostering diversity and inclusion. Through its Equal Access Employment Program, UdeM invites applications from women, Aboriginal people, visible and ethnic minorities, as well as persons with disabilities. We will –confidentially – adapt our recruitment mechanisms to the specific needs of people with disabilities who request it. We also welcome applications from candidates of all orientations and sexual identities. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, priority will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents.

Université de Montréal's application process allows all members of the Professor's Assembly to review the application files submitted. If you wish to keep your application confidential until the shortlist is established, please mention it in your application.

