L'Université de Montréal et de votre carrière.

Université de Montréal has more than 10,000 employees and is one of Canada's Top 100 Employers.

UdeM has Canada's 2nd largest student body and ranks among the top five Canadian research universities, receiving more than half a billion dollars in research funding every year.

Through the achievements of the members of its community, UdeM participates in building today's and tomorrow's world.

Assistant Professor Position in Psychoeducation

School of Psychoeducation

Faculty of Arts and Science

Job Description

The School of Psychoeducation is seeking applications for a full-time tenure-track assistant professor position at its Montreal and Laval campuses. Expertise in psychoeducational assessment and intervention with children, adolescents or adults with adjustment difficulties is sought.

Established in 1972, the School of Psychoeducation was the first to offer university training in psychoeducation in Quebec. With its 20 career professors, it plays a leading role in research and in the training of undergraduate and graduate students.

Responsibilities

The successful candidate will be expected to teach at undergraduate and graduate levels, supervise graduate students, pursue a solid research program, engage in publication and other outreach activities, and contribute to other activities of the institution.

Requirements

- » Ph.D. in Psychoeducation or in a relevant discipline;
- » Demonstrated skills in providing high quality university teaching;
- » Research experience and an excellent record of publications in a relevant field;
- » Have an adequate knowledge of the French language or be determined to become a fluent speaker and writer through the French language learning support program offered to its professors, under the Language Policy of the Université de Montréal.

Assets

- » Clinical experience in psychoeducational assessment and intervention;
- » Postdoctoral training;
- » Member or eligibility to the Ordre des psychoéducateurs et psychoéducatrices du Québec (OPPQ).

How to submit your application

The application must be sent to the Director of the School of Psychoeducation by January 15th 2022, and must include the following :

» A letter of motivation. In order to comply with the requirements of Government of Canada, please include in your cover letter one of the following statements: "I am a citizen/permanent resident of Canada" or "I am not a citizen/permanent resident of Canada";

» A curriculum vitae;

» Two or three examples of recent publications or research work representative of the candidate's expertise;

» A statement on teaching principles (no more than two pages);

» A statement describing a proposed research program (no more than two pages);

» Three letters of recommendation, which must be sent by the referees directly to the Director of the School of Psychoeducation.

The application form and letters of recommendation must be sent by email, no later than January 15th, 2022, to :

Paul Gendreau, Director
School of Psychoeducation, Faculty of Arts and Science
Email : paul.gendreau@umontreal.ca
For more information on psychoeducation :
Website of the School of Psychoeducation
Website of the Government of Quebec

Additional information about the position

Nº posting	FAS 11-21/24
Posting period	Up to and including January 15th, 2022
Conditions	The University of Montreal offers competitive salaries and a full range of benefits
Starting date	On or after June 1st, 2022

Université de Montréal (UdeM) is strongly committed to fostering diversity and inclusion. Through its Equal Access Employment Program (EAEP), UdeM invites applications from women, Aboriginal people, visible and ethnic minorities, as well as persons with disabilities. We will – confidentially – adapt our recruitment mechanisms to the specific needs of people with disabilities who request it.

UdeM embraces a broad and inclusive definition of diversity that goes beyond applicable laws, and therefore encourages all qualified individuals to apply, regardless of their characteristics. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply. However, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, priority will be given to Canadians and permanent residents.

In order to measure the impact of its equity, diversity and inclusion actions, UdeM is collecting data on applicants identifying themselves with one of the groups targeted by the EAEP, namely women, Aboriginal people, visible minorities, ethnic minorities, and people with limitations. To this end, we thank you for completing this self-identification questionnaire. The information you provide through this form is strictly confidential and will be shared only with those responsible for the UdeM EAEP. If you wish, you may also indicate that you belong to one of the targeted groups in your cover letter, which will be reviewed by the selection committee and the assembly of peers.

Université de Montréal's application process allows all members of the Professor's Assembly to review the application files submitted. If you wish to keep your application confidential until the shortlist is established, please mention it in your application.